Dear Richmond Selectboard,

I have been in contact with Virginia Clarke for a couple of months regarding the town planning process. I recently attended a Planning Commission meeting, and Virginia and Keith Osborne invited me to join them as a commissioner.

Last year, I moved to Richmond from the Upper Valley area of VT, in order to pursue an MS in Food Systems at UVM. My professional background/trajectory is in participatory design work - in other words, facilitation that engages community members in creative problem-solving around issues that affect them. I have also worked in environmental modeling, software project management, and diversity, equity, and inclusion strategy/facilitation. In pursuit of my current degree, I am receiving training and conducting research in landscape design and land use decision making processes.

A note regarding the term of position: I will be in school until May of 2026. At that time I can imagine staying in Richmond, but I can also imagine needing to leave, depending on work opportunities.

As a 25-year-old genderqueer person, I likely will bring a new perspective to the commission. I hope to support the commission in meaningfully engaging with Richmond residents whose identities and needs have been historically underrepresented in the town planning process, as we launch into developing the 2026 Town Plan.
